BIBLE RECORD of JAMES MONROE FLOOD of SHELBY COUNTY, KENTUCKY

The Bible was printed in Philadelphia, at 217-219 Quince Street, by Samuel D. Burlock & Co. It evidently was originally the Bible of James Monroe Flood's father, William Flood (whose wife was Mary Jones, a third cousin of Robert E. Lee) of Buckingham County, Virginia and Shelby County, Kentucky, as the births of William Flood and wife, Mary, were recorded in an entirely different, also faded handwriting. When this record was copied (November 1959) by Mrs. Edythe C. Newton of Lyndon, Ky., the Bible was in the possession of Mr. Robert Price Flood (son of James Monroe Flood) of Croppers, Shelby County, Ky., who was then 90 years of age, but died September 1961. In this copy of the Bible Record, the parentheses have been added.
