Generation 1

1. NINIAN<sup>1</sup> BEALL was born in 1625 in Dumbarton, Dunbartonshire, Scotland. He died on Jan 15, 1717 in Prince George Co., MD. He married (1) ELIZABETH GORDON before Bef. 1657 in Scotland. She was born in 1630 in Scotland. She died in 1668 in Largo, Fife, Scotland. He married (2) RUTH MOORE, daughter of Richard Moore and Jane _____, in 1668. She was born in 1652. She died in 1707.

Notes for Ninian Beall:

Ninian Beall (originally Bell) was charged with holding a commission of Cornet in the Scotch English Army, raised to resist Oliver Cromwell. In the Battle of Dunbar on September 3, 1650, against Cromwell, Ninian with many other Scotch soldiers were captured, tried and condemned to servitude in the British plantations. Ninian apparently spent part of his servitude in Ireland and the remainder in Maryland.

Saint Andrews, Ringen, Largo, Dunbar, Edinberg, Fyfe and Rock of Dumbarton were some of the plantations patented or purchased by Ninian. They are named for places in his native Scotland.

Ninian received several military appointments, apparently in recognition of his experience in the Scotch-English Army:

- October 31, 1668: official records at Saint Marys City lists him as Lieut. Ninian Beall.
- 1676: Commissioned Lieutenant for Lord Baltimore's Yacht of War.
- 1681: Captain Ninian Beall, Chief Indian Ranger, is given power to press man and horse at any time to give his Lordship intelligence about Indians.
- 1684: Appointed Deputy Surveyor of Charles County, to lay out Ports of Entry and trade towns.
- 1686: Appointed Peace Officer of Calvert County by the Assembly, and charged with seeing the laws of the Assembly are obeyed.
- 1689: Appointed Major of Militia of Calvert County by the Assembly.
- 1689: About 1688 Colonel Ninian Beall and others, headed an association formed for the defense of the Protestant Religion in the Province of Maryland. This attack upon the Capitol of St. Mary's, August 1 1689, resulted in the surrender of the Royal Council and Lord Baltimore Government. This articles of surrender gave the Revolutionist complete possession of the Government of the Province, and was never returned to the Catholics. Ninian was elected Burgesses to represent Calvert County in the House of Burgesses.
- 1697: Ninian was reelected to his fifth successive term as Burgess, retiring September 14, 1704.
- 1699: Ninian signed a petition to King William III for the establishment of the Church of England in the Province of Maryland, although he was an elder in the Presbyterian Church. Ninian was the first elder of the Presbyterian Church in America.

In the Name of God, Amen. I, Ninian Beall, of Prince George's County, in the Province of Maryland, being indisposed in Body, but of sound and perfect memory, God be praised for the same, and considering the mortality of human nature and uncertainty of life, doe make, ordain, constitute, and appoint this to be my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following. Vist. Impris. I give and bequeath my soul into the hands of Almighty God in hopes of free pardon for all my sins and as for my body to be committed to the Earth from whence it came, to be decently burried at the discretion of my trustees hereafter mentioned.

Descendants of Alexander Beall

Generation 1

1. ALEXANDER<sup>1</sup> BEALL was born about Abt. 1625 in Largo, County of Fife, Scotland. He died about Abt. 1656 in St. Andrews Parish, Fife, Scotland. He married Margaret Ramsay on May 21, 1646 in St Andrew's, Fife, Scotland. She was born about Abt. 1630 in St Andrew's, Fife, Scotland. She died after Aft. Mar 28, 1655 in Scotland.

Notes for Alexander Beall:

Alexander Bell is believed to have been born during the early 1600's in Fife County, Scotland. Although the identity of Alexander's parents has yet to be determined beyond doubt, there are a number of researchers who believe that his father was named William. It is further believed that Alexander had a brother, also named William, and that it was this William who married Christian Traill in the parish church at St. Andrew's in Fife County on 5 December 1639. No additional information has been found concerning this William, however..

Alexander, who was a brabener (linen weaver) by trade, was later married on 21 May 1646 in the parish church at St. Andrew's in Fife County to a woman named Margaret Ramsay. With the exception of Robert, the following children were identified through the christening records of St. Andrew's Church as being Alexander and Margaret's. Because no birth or christening records have been found for Robert, his actual relationship to this family is still being debated. It is my belief, however, that Alexander and Margaret could have had additional children that were christened in another parish, and that they simply have not been located yet. In light of the fact that Alexander's son, Alexander, specifically referred to a brother named Robert in his will, I have included this Robert as also being a son of Alexander and Margaret Bell..

Alexander Beall and Margaret Ramsay had the following children:

2.
  - i. WILLIAM<sup>2</sup> BEALL was born on Aug 22, 1647 in St Andrew's, Fife, Scotland. He died about Abt. 1731 in Calvert Co., MD. He married Elizabeth Stallings, daughter of Richard Stallings, in 1695.

Notes:

Elizabeth is mentioned as the god-daughter of Joanna Sprigg Beale.

I don't think this statement is true. See the next after this.

Enoch Coombes patented Largoe, which lyeth on the north side of southwest branch of the Patuxent River, before it came into possession of Alexander Beall. Enoch had a daughter named Elizabeth Coombes. Her godmother was Joane Lawson, Reade, Mounten, Tyler, Beall, wife of John Beall, immigrant of 1670. Joane left Elizabeth a legacy in her will of 1675.

Colonial Families of the United States Descended from the Immigrants This book contains the genealogy of Bell, Beal, Bale, Beale, Beall colonial families who arrived before 1700. Most of the individuals originated from England and Scotland who are now settled in Maryland. From Data Collected and Edited by Lieutenant Colonel Fiedler M.M. Beall, U.S. Army Ret, Printed by Chas. H. Potter & Co., Inc. Washington D.C. 1929. pp. 10-11&15

As brother Robert, mentioned in his will, did not have the same father and mother as Alexander did, it is surmised that Robert was a Scotch foster brother.

In 1751 Robert asked neighbor James Pearre to write a deed of gift to son James and Margaret his wife (PGLR NN.399);

Robert Beall had the following child:

i. JAMES<sup>3</sup> BEALL.

The following children were registered in King George's Parish as "of Ann Boswell, b. in house of Josias Beall"; these children have the surname of Beall, and the female, age 25, in his household is unnamed in the 1776 census. Although David Fendall, b. 1775, was alive in 1793, there is no male age 1 listed in this census. The odd phrasing suggests that Josias may not have been married to Ann Boswell, if indeed he was the father of the children.
