1. ARCHIBALD HOUSTON[2] HAYES (MOSES[1]) was born July 15, 1836 in Weakley,Tennessee, and died April 28, 1909 in Melber, Graves County, Kentucky. He married ELIZABETH RUST December 19, 1859 in Bird's Point, MO, daughter of JOSHUA RUST and NANCY ELIZABETH. She was born January 23, 1842 in Tennessee, and died January 19, 1925 in Melber, Graves County, Kentucky.

Notes for ARCHIBALD HOUSTON HAYES:
Confederate Widow's Pension Application:

Elizabeth Rust Hayes applied for a widow's pension in 1912. In the pension application, it states that she was born in Graves County, Kentucky on January 23, 1842 and that her husband, Archie Houston Hays was born in Weakly County, Tennessee on June 15, 1842. They were married in Bird's Point, Mo on December 19, 1859.

Archie enlisted in the Confederate States Army in October 1861, in Company F, 7th Kentucky Mounted Regiment and served 14 months. He was taken as Prisoner of War at Trenton, Tennessee in December 1862 and held there until his release on parole. Archie returned to the Army and was once again captured my Federal Troops and taken to prison a second time to Paducah, Kentucky. He was released from prison in Paducah and sent home to die. Archie recovered at home and again, returned to the Army. He continued his service to the Confederacy with General Nathan Bedford Forrest's Cavalry Regiment during the campaigns of 1863-1864. Archie left the CSA in January 1865 somewhere in Mississippi and returned to Graves County, Kentucky. He died on April 28, 1909.

A statement to the pension application by Archie's brother, James E. Hays of Lovelaceville, Kentucky states he has been a resident since March 16, 1878. He and his brother, Archie enlisted together in October 1861 at Camp Burnett, Ballard County, Kentucky into the same company and served together the entire war.

Affidavat by Sam W. Davis, Mayfield, Kentucky certified that Arch Hays was a member of Company F, 7th Kentucky Mounted Regiment and that Arch enlisted in the CSA in the fall of 1861 and served until later part of 1864. Davis certifies that Arch Hays was at the Battle of Shiloh, Corinth, MS and Arch was detached from service at about the time Davis was wounded there.
