Lucy was born in 1853, and married John M Ayers [This is an error. His name was actually Robert Marshall Ayres] some time after 1880, as she was still at home at that time, age 26. They went to Richmond, where he was a street-car conductor. After Lucy's parent's home burned in 1889, and Edward Flood's death a year or 2 later, Lucy's mother went to live with them in Richmond. If the city directory of Richmond is accurate, Lucy lived to be a hundred years old, for she was listed in 1954 as the widow of John M Ayers, living at 2301 Grove Ave. She was not listed in the next year's edition.
